BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Quin Baker is a dynamic community leader and accomplished entrepreneur. In his capacity as Lead Pastor, he is intensely committed to the ongoing development and expansion of Pleasant View Baptist Church, with a specific focus on "Connecting the church to the Community" through the transformative power of Christ's love.

Currently undertaking a Bachelor of Arts degree with a concentration in Biblical Studies from Luther Rice College and Seminary in Lithonia, Georgia, Baker brings a wealth of experience and expertise to his ministry. With over 20 years of preaching experience, he has had the privilege of sharing his message of hope and inspiration in various church services, revivals, and youth and young adult conferences.

In addition to his ministerial work, Pastor Q is also a dedicated family man who enjoys spending quality time with his loved ones. He is renowned for his sense of humor, sartorial flair, and culinary skills, and is passionate about empowering young people and promoting the power of music as a force for change and transformation.

In conclusion, Pastor Quin Baker embodies a rare combination of spiritual depth, entrepreneurial savvy, and community engagement. His sage advice to all is to seize the moment and learn how to truly enjoy life, for we are only given one shot at it!

Quin is married to Keyanette Baker and they live in McDonough, Georgia, and are natives of Atlanta. They are the proud parents of a blended family of 6 children: Jahii, Khalil, DeAnthony, Raven, Morgan, and Joshua and loving grandparents to a host of joyful grandchildren.
